1:32 EAT THAT SUCKAS! For once, my team had some teamwork on walls, and we (a team of 10 out of 15 players) all grabbed free engineers, two more guys grabbed flamethrower and a mg and we all rushed into the enemy base via tunnels at the first second. Two people per building, C4...you do the math. It would have taken us 10 seconds, because we timed it by team chat- I told everybody to tell me when they were in position and had c4 in place. I did a check: "IF?" they replied: "in place!" "PP?" "CHECK" "TIBREF?" "WERE IN" etc. The two guys with guns ran out in the middle and acted like idiots to draw the pigeons away. "Alright, hit it!" "NOD WINS BY DESTROYING THE ENEMY BASE!" That was the first and only time I could ever get that kind of team work....
