Just about every gun in the game can get you kills if you know what you are doing. For someone starting out, I'd recommend the laser chain gun. Can hurt both infantry and vehicles well. Only draw back: over all accuracy is not that great compare to a sniper rifle or something, and it chews through ammo like a mofo. For base defense though, 2 or 3 of those laser chain gunners can annihilate just about any supported tank in a flash, and can mow down infantry well too.
