Its also fun when your Nod and in the hand, just to lay 2-3 remote c4 in front of the MCT and when any GDI comes by hoping to lay a timed one just detonate them. It's funny as hell to see a hottie, patch, mobius, etc being caught by surprised and killed by a engine. Ive gotten 20-some kills off of one game just by doing this. But alas, they finally got smart and set an ion before i was able to waste more GDI scum.
