My team(GDI) had 2 people and other team(Nod) had 3. A person joins for Nod cus they have more people. I tell the host who is on the other team that the teams should be even. No reponse. After mention it a couple more times I realizes the host didn't care. Then another person joins my team only to switch to Nod cus they have more people. Now 2 vs 5. What none of them realized is we already took out the Hand and the Nod Refinery. We then took out the Power Plant and the Airstrip. Three Nod players quit and one switched to our team, leaving the host of the game alone. LOL [ December 10, 2002, 15:37: Message edited by: DragonFg ]
