On the hand of Nod. Note, this only works with Flying maps, and base defense has to be neutralized. Get trans chopper, get non expensive inf. (this takes perfection) Learn which side to jump out on. Jump out and land on the hand holding the ball. It is guaranteed to succeed, for the enemy will have to duplicate your maneuver, and by the time they even locate it, then try to disarm it, a lot of time is used up. If they do manage to get on top, they have probably 5 secs to disarm it. [Note, i tried this, and it does work.]
