A good APC or Hummer/buggy driver should every now and again pick up people and give em lifts. For instance, a guy's half beaten up and returning to base for some ammo/health/new ride/etc. Drive up next to him, say the "Get in the Vehicle" thingy and zoom him home. Not saying you should do NOTHING but taxi drive (see that APC thread for APC tactics), but it helps save you time when you give a friend a lift. I know I always try to give the team Havoc a lift out of base when I'm in a hummer
