People, even new multiplayerers, are really this stupid? quote:So--your PRIORITY tactic is to go after the Hotties/Techies/Engies - they are the primary destroyer of buildings - !!!!Not only will he most likely drop the one building, but is capable of dropping at least two provided he has a nuke/ion and C4. Plant the remote C4 on one building, run to another, plant the nuke, trigger the C4, then watch the mahem. They won't know which way to turn.
