Darth, Osubas, finally some people who provide real help! Me too, I like to repair the base/support the tanks/do whatever to kepp em alive a little longer. Today I was very satisfied with taking over the repairs for one who had the creds to buy a tank. He warded of the Artilleries and I was happy keeping the PP alive long enough while everybody else was dying to the obelisc. And I know how well this sort of teamwork works (ummm... stile...) cause I was on the recieving end in an arty destroying the AGT on under while being repaired... AND NO ONE TRIED TO STOP ME! Cause no one bother staying home. Keep up the good work!
