I'll plant the beacon, backpeddle, and guard it. Its very rare that I would lose that oppurtunity to more than 2-3 hotties or techs.you misunderstand -im not saying you cant lay a beacon solo - but when the enemy is on base defense - multiple sappers would make it easier --BTW - as a sniper - you should be standing at a distance covering a beacon someone else plants - in you view -- nothing sweeter to shoot those techs standing to disarm...IMHO - lol
