I have gotten the stealing of vehicles to work once on a public game. It was on the 'Under' map. We managed to steal about 5 vehicles and park them near the ref, at the end of the strip. It was pretty funny. Since each side is limited to 8 vehicles total (no matter how many play, I believe) they were pretty screwed. Needless to say it was a lot of fun. WOL - tmanookl think I was in that game. We had a mammoth and 2 meds and a hummer i think, I have a snapshot of it actually. But I think the game ended before we were really able to make an advantage out of it, but it was still funny to see those tanks parked in our base. Was really surprised no one took off with them.
