In one game in volcano, I stole a light tank (our weapons factory was destroyed) and half my team spent 10 minutes shooting at me and calling me a cheating n00b with an unlimited health aimbot (don't ask... they don't know what a hack or mod is, they call everything "aimbot"). LoL.LMFAO!!!! That's the funniest thing I've ever heard.. EVER!I do agree with everythjing everybody here is saying.. BUT the problem is, you hafta let them know what you're doing! TELL them numerous time b4 you steal a vehicle! because some people just don't read the top left hand side!!!There have been games where I have tried to tell my team of a plan, and they either ignore me, or they just don't read anything except "ATTACK THE BASE DEFENSES!" & "AFFIRMATIVE!"Note to all you Renegaders... Unless you are on the verge of killing somebody, READ! If I'm telling you the nuke is in our power plant.. that mneans get your ass inside that pplant NOW and disarm it!Stupid newbs.. it makes me laugh when a nuke is placed in a building, and they think that repairing it on the outside will help the building survive! Repairing buildings on the outside period is just pathetic... you think they've never played Single Player Renegade!
