That's why there is no need to mention the differences of real gameplay as it's a requirement to be entered into the 'very good' category.You spelled "automatically" wrong.I was using that not to show off English (Which I'm not the best at), it was to show you what arrogance really is. My posts were to show my opinion. The reason I call myself a sniping master is because I was in HS, which was the clan of 'Sniping Masters'. Which you thought would be necessary to bring up.
