ill have to say unreal tournament, i need the blood spillin, man now those r good graphics, i love it when u snipe sumone in the head they fall down and all there is on a wall is a blood stain, i looks soo kewl, also if its one of those 12 player maps and all the actions in on room and u lok at the room once its done its coverd in blood (and it looks realistic aint no fake lookin) oh and the player bodys stay there for a while, few minutes i belive, really great graphics on that game, better then renegade i would say, only reason i liek renegade is cause its a C&C game and its based on the C&C universe, lol, thats pretty much it
