patrolling the gdi base with apc's fine... but if you are by urself and there's a stelath nuke at the back of the barracks... what will u do? =)will you get out of ur apc and defuse it because u have no back up? [you couldn't find the stealth guy] in this case u are screwed =P*****if you have the apc in this case, you gotta find and kill the sbh. Otherwise he just takes your apc and is better set to defend his beacon. you holler out where the beacon is and hope engineers get there in time, while you hunt down the sbh.
