Reminds me of when the renegade demo came out, as soon as a mammoth rolled onto the feild everyone was yelling"Mammoth tank in the feild!" and you could see the light tanks back into there base and all the infantry fall back as if God himself walked onto the battlefeild, if you want some real kicks go play the demo again and see this for yourself, also many of them dont have turret lock on so you can take em out with a chem tropper of buggy.
