I remember some idiot (probaly a newbie) put his stealth tank next to the tunnel in city to repair it. I then saw him leave to go alllllll the way to the barracks(instead of the agt)then comes back with a hotwire(he had a engy) As soon as he steps out the door I hear that mammoth start up and my cursor tells me nod has it... sad very sad. Did you know that a mammoth can last 32 seconds against a AGT? Wel ost because of him when the mammoth died all the technicain had to do was plant his remote KABOOM.
