On field,as GDI,we APC rushed the OB,well,I got out of the APC early and went in the hand as a hotwire. After taking out the building by myself,I noticed something.I wasnt being killed by the usual wad of infantry.This left me stranded in the hand.I stayed there,ducking and hiding from the occasional spawner,just seeing how long I could survive like this. As I sat in there looking out the window at the raging battle outside,one thought was in my mind."Darn...wish I had brought a beacon!"
