I have used many strats, here are some: Base is under heavy fire. Become Techie/Hotwire. Just stand in damaged building, w/ mines at entrance and on MCT repairing, not letting up on the button any. If your under constant fire, you rack up points and money quickly. Constanly assault base with vehicles, Mammy's, Med's, Artillery, etc,...Engi rush. Sniper. Preferably Havoc or Sakura. Beacon rush. Any other strat. Please tell me useful strategies. I am not a n00b, but I am still trying to get a high point rating, but i find that I spend too much time repairing my allies and buildings. and I find that sniping is incredibly fun and once I start, thats all I want to do and cant stop. Pls give me good strats. I already know the crouch over the nuke beacon w/ stealthy soldier or tank, .. .
