Oh, boy. These newbie (ACK) hosts really make me mad. There was once this game and the rule was: "No stealing vehicles from teammates!" Okay, always play by that rule. As the game went on I bought myself an ORCA. I was on my way to the WF when I saw that some idiot took off with my ORCA! I complained to the host and the next thing I remember... I was kicked! Can't remember the idiot's name though... [June 11, 2002, 23:45: Message edited by: FireSnake]
