quote:Originally posted by Dogg:True...I think only Nod has the great advantage at the theft ring...with so many noobs jumping out in the middle of some maps and with black hands it's toooo easy...you can do it with gdi, but it's harder to sneak up...at least if the Nod is smart, he's in 3rd person view when he jumps out to repair so he can see around...I was in under and i saw someone get out of a mamy right in front of the nod base, he got killed so i got in his mamy and was going to protect if for him. Then he came out of our base and saw me in it and started cussin and everything telling me to get out -- i said wait untill u get to it... and he was still mad. So to shut him up i got out and a stealth walked right into it and killed him. [ June 08, 2002, 19:00: Message edited by: Agent83 ]
