I was in the same situ that you were in as a raveshaw and ... 1 shot from a pistol ... and I was dead. what can you do? I have been told time and time again that there are no aimbots for renegade ... but that is just a matter of time. I think that we would have heard about them somewhere else. Now, I have heard a lot of talk about damage modifiers ... still haven't found anyone reliable to tell me about them though. I have also heard of people jacking up the hit pts on mammoths and the indestructalbe c4. Haven't seen any mammoths like that yet but I have come across c4 that you can't disarm. So , unfortuneatly there will be those who do find a way to cheat. Maybe, someone can explain why they have to; to me
