it would be cheaper to just go in with stanks with no beacons, stanks and flames do the same damage per burst. Since the flames are coming from the bridge they can either get wf or refinery, and theres already 3 flames so unless they had 1k chars and tanks shooting u those 3 tanks would be able to blow up at least one build. At the same time those 4 stanks can blow up bax and power. GDI can't defend 2 or maybe 4 builds at same time since some of them will be trying to kill u
