(secondary mammoth weapon was and should still be called "Mammoth Tusk")If you get too close
I will Tusk missile you and spam for repairs and reinforcements.The missiles have to curve down and can't hit anything right next to it. The dude's absolutely right, you can waltz into the minimum range of the mammoth, that's its weakness.But just as you're within 45 feet I'll ram you with my Medium tank which has no minimum range and between me and the mammoth you can't get to you'll be toast.Don't listen to Ivan. He's Crazy.
