For a being a "senior" in HS you are suprisingly immature silentson. Besides, I'll use several arguments against your "n00b" (or however its spelled). Registration date. Registered a month before you. Lower member number. More posts. While these are irrational ways to demonstrate anything, your kind likes to use these things to justify calling others "n00bs". So, why not correct yourself silentson? Trying to be by saying a phrase does not work here. Back to topic: I'm thinking that the Auto Pistol has a higher damage multiplier to the head. I remember somewhere a person stating that three headshots would kill a freebie; and I have bad memories of how little stopping power a auto pistol has going into a freebies chest or legs.
