o yea once in this game every time i bought an orca, he'd try to run into it and enter it but fortunately he couldn't enter. All he did the entire game was sit there and snipe INSIDE OUR BASE. There wuz another case when i left my apache outside the refinery in CnC walls Flying to get an engineer and repair it. Then some *hole takes my apache, flies up only to get a havoc to blow up "his" apache. Then seconds later my airstrip blew up so i couldn't buy another one. Maybe if it was still up i could've wrecked more havoc to the GDI base.
