10 points? dude....thats funny,nobody is repairing......i bet there faces looked like this: anyway.... i played on the wolf server 1 last night, and we got our warfactory blown to shote on "field" we co-ordinated a hotwire rush throught htere tunnles, i was covering them as a mobius(after not spending a penny on anything all game i had like 10000 dollers)i covered em as a mobius, and got inside there hand, they went down instantaniously as i had a becon, and put it on he right side, as that could be covered by the snipers/can take down a turret(WOW A TURRET) and they were all like   and then we did a mobius rush to there airfield, and that worked, after killing xxxgijoe a million or so times(HEHE u know what im talking about) and then allt hey had was an oby, and the turret(WOW A TURRET) and we couldnt get into there obby nomatter what the cost, as thye had like 5 flamers covering it.....and 3 stanks...i dont know why they didnt rush w/ that, but anyway....we had 1 mrls that we were saving, and we used it to take out the flamers, while the mobius were covering it, snuck into the hand (w/ 2 hotwires(heal each other/me) 3 snipers, and an officer me being patch w/ a becon) and i put it on there pedestal the hotwires put like 12 mines down there plus there mote c4 we covered the front entrance while i covered the main part of the opperation(becon on pedestal) and then thgey came crashing thro the back, while i got sniped, and they got to the becon, but i couldnt get in, because of the proxies, so we won(w00t about 210 points!)
