i think that was me who destroyed the barax, was i a ssoldier w/ abecon, and i put it under the ramp on the side closer to the agt?anyway....i was in a wol forum game (wolf w/e) it was city_flying and decided that since evry1 likes a flying unit, i would apc rush...i get my apc, and some1 gets a patch and a becon, and gets in, and a soldier, and told him to wait in the apc so it wouldnt get stolen (i was a hotwire) i get to thier pp alright, but that one entrance(the left one) was heavily mined, but the right one was mine free....idiots... i planted the c4 and waited while the patch covered me.... then he planted the becon in there ref, while i covered it w/ proxies...we both get into the apc, and run back for another one, but suddenly a mendoza appears to block us,i sed "q me" and he gave me control of the gun, 5 head shots onhim, and we barley make it back alive, but one thing, we forgot patch.....he got out to duel the mendoza, and was hiding on thier skysc****r for exfiltration, so i buy a helitranspor thing and was being chased by 2 apaches.....to my luck they had TERRIBLE AIM so i got to thier skysc****r i didnt notice but some1 had a becon in my transport so i put him down ontop of the HAND and he becons it and we run away, hehe it was a blast because snipers were covering it, while we made a run for it, so thats 3 down, 2 to go....i become a mobius, and have a becon and mammoth(destroyed thie power, and have cash from tib) so i get back in my transport, and have a couple of officers-to cover me while im planting- and snipers- to kill ppl trying to diffuse...i plant it ontop of the airstrip so they could cover it and decided to have some fun...pputting c4 on the mct in the obby, will make them think that its beconed instead of the airstrip...and to my supprise i found 2 flametanks being made, so i asked my team mates to jump in, and they did, so the becon went off and the obby gopt destroyed almost instantaniosly... hehe man i gotta love those team mates who LISTEN
