i want to try something a little different this friday night. the server will be set up for team changing, and base defense maps will be removed. only one player will be nod, and he will be a stealth infantry. everyone else will be gdi and seek to find the stealth. you must be a free infantry and no vehicles may be purchased. no conversation will be allowed during game play, and players will not be allowed to form groups. the object is to be the one to kill the stealth dude. of course, the stealth will be allowed to kill you too. once a player kills the stealth, then that player will change sides and become the stealth, and the former stealth will become gdi and search for the stealth. the player that is the stealth at the end of time is the winner and will get to start the next game as the stealth.so what do you guys think. wanna give it a try???
