omigosh...heck with those helis, some people just wanna try out those helis and never use those old tactics again, dude, is that messed up or what??? when i was playin on a server, everyone bought helis so i couldn't apc rush in c&c_city_flying, that was freakin messed up, dang it, i had to wait until a heli blew up so i could get a apc and blow the heck out of their pp...hey newbies, don't always use those helis, they have low armour and everything, try using somethin else, like the old strategies to take out the pp or the refinery, duh...don't just get helis for fun. NOTE: usually, if u r in a heli, don't expect to be MVP...
