quote:Originally posted by [M@D] BlackTyranitar:a medium tank could do that too, probably even better but, a med tank can't get behind the pp fast enough, before it's destroyed by the OoL. orca's can slip in with minimal damage (even more so if there's at least two) and destroy the pp. i've even done it solo and placed a beacon, and blew the pp up that way. works, as long as your up against idiots.
