Heh, wut's even better, is to drive in your buggy/humm vee into the tiberium thing when the harv is unloading, and plant the beacon right in the center of the loading bay. Now, get back in your vehicle. You can kill engies with ease in it, and if they manage to blow up your humvee (so you stop killing their engies), the harv backs up over the beacon, making disarming impossible!
