If you were to add them then n00bs would spam all the time, don't forget that the more you add the harder it will be to remember (on the more I will need to print out so I can just look at the paper on my wall ) I think that the ones that should go are: Watch where you are pointing that! Take the point. Attack that structure! Take cover Destroy it now! I never hear them being used. I think these should be added: Attack the Weapons Factory/Air strip (maybe Attack the enemy's tank production facility) Sniper on field In coming enemy attack Mine the base No more mines I don't think there should be a thank you one because all you need to do is hit F3 and type ty
