hmmm...stealth units...sometimes the sun reflects the ripples on ur cloaking machine...so...when u get about 8ft in range to the enemy unit...the enemy unit will c u...so be careful...also...if the stealth unit gets shot...even by its own team...it will reveal the ripples...that's why like in c&c_island...i always walk in the tunnels while i shoot my auto pistol...it has infinite ammo and everything...though sometimes u miss u have a 85\% chance of hitting the blackhand...
