The only benefits for playing on WOL is for prizes, and I don't have the motivation to sit in front of my computer non-stop for a week to win a GF3 Ti200, considering I already have one, and also an original GF3 and a GF4 Ti4600, in addition to two GF2 GTSes. Anyone who has seen me play knows I'm a *ed good player on either side, and I find playing on GS, where there's no real "points, points, points!" motivation for the ladder to provide a much more enjoyable gaming experience. The only thing I regret is not getting to see my total stats anymore for purely informational purposes.
