WakkoSound advice - but sometimes you get yelled at by the "rambo's" and "kiddies"and i dont play to babysit those types.About two weeks in the retail release - i would say "Laying mines" - "about 15 mines out" - and some "IDIOT" sends "BFD -"and i watched all the mines i lay go *POOF*well - that so angered me - i just stopdoing BD on that map - and in rolled GDI - we lost the game. (All the wanna-be tank hero's were "Defend the Base" or "Repair that..." - i just replied -- "Guess you needed the mines, uh?"got really quiet after that....Hope to see you and the other team players in the game -- games played that way are the best!
