You have 30 mines only.....no server setting -- and they last till they blow or ---if you lay a 31st one - the first one you laid will go poof(wish they would make a counter for Hotwire/Tech to show how many are out)So - if your planting them -- yell out that your planting them --hopefully the team will know what that means....And please dont use them for personal defense if your base is being attack and your at the other base... nothing sadder to see then that FT/Mamie walk in and your mines poofing b4 they hit them....Poof[April 08, 2002: Message edited by: StoneRook]
