I never saw them have one in the SP of Renegade; again, just missiles.And this isn't necessarily my prediction of what the air patch will be, per se, because I know it is not. It is just what I think the air patch should be like to keep thigs even. Like I said, I was bored.I agree. In the original C&C they had only missiles. The NOD helicopters (not sure what they are called) were the only ones that had machine guns.
