Its best capabliity is taht eh n you fire sidewasy it still shoots out hte front allowing you to fire from covered spots or into the enemey base without being seen. I took out an obelisk from around the corner. Also on the map field i stood parrall to the entrence and aimed so that i could fire 1/2 through teh tunnel and i sat there 1/2 the game and we won becuae the nod black hands couldn't sneek into our base becuse i woudl blwo them up the mlrs is the best unit in teh gaem if use properly
