i know alot of u say the MRLS's suck but 2 of them can take out all the buildinsg (i did once with another guy had no help everyone was at the base)in one of the maps as GDI if you look right that cave with teh lava flowing down its a tiberium feild inside go in there with 2 MRLS's have 1 person be a engie and just start unloading at the buildings if a troop attacks you and your low on health just drive back a bit and hav ethe other guy repair you since your at your base
