Today on hourglass, as nod we f-tank-rush the tower.... Someone with a med tank blocked us as I do usually with a apc. This was very effective too. But I prefer my apc+hotwire choice, because i'm sure the tower is well mined. And a med-tank alone can't do nothing against obelisk, instead of a apc+hotwire, which with little luck, can destroy it, if the enemy is not well prepared. Yes we must always prepare a counter attack
