Ever been bottled up in the GDI base in Under, or any other map for that reason? Your team keeps buying cheap units and suiciding, all the while not getting credits because the harvester keeps getting blown to bits. The only way to stop this vicious cycle is to have some people repair other people's vehicles. No one does this because of the miniscule amount of points that you get when you repair vehicles... Or that when you, finally taking charge and buying a hotwire and devoting yourself to healing the stupid suiciders, single-handedly turning the tide of the game in your favor end up in the bottom 2/3 of the game? I hate that... Me repairing those losers and not even getting decent credit for the games that were won because of an attempt at teamwork by me only... I think that Westwood should up the points on repairing vehicles in an effort to improve teamplay...
