I was playing on hour glass and as usual i thought no1 would win becuae its to hard to rush bases on this map (i was "Nod" Nod note i said Nod not NOD) Untill some yelled out FLAME rush to our team, i turned around and saw 4-6 flame tanks being dropped off at the airstrip so i bought i light tank to join in the upcoming action (its all i could afford) Anyway with that 1 rush of flame tanks we took down their AGT their tanks and the rest f the base and won about 10 mins into the game. Of course 1 or 2 flame tanks were destroyed though. My point is a team co-ordinated attack of flame tanks against an unco-ordinated team is pritty much unstoppable
