This might sound stupid, but this is a method that works for me. I need one other person to help. Me and a buddy(black hands) sneak into the GDI base, I place the nuke(lets say at the powerplant), and then stand hidden and guard it. My buddy then stands outside another building(exposes himself, like shoot or what ever), then sends a message to everyone (F2), says something to the effect of, HA HA, SORRY GDI KISS YOUR (THE FAKE BUILDING) GOOD BYE. Then GDI rushes towards that building looking for the Nuke, then its too late by the time they figure somethings up.
