Funny Story:There was only 8 min left in the game on Under. I was on the GDI team and we were winning so I decided to goof off.I bought havoc, ran through the tunnels, did the usual running from rock to rock and made it into their hand of nod. Now great hilarity ensued as I sniped the enemy team from behind. There was a lot of ing and "wtfs".. They finally found me after I ran out of ammo and was pistol sniping.
