Nice tips! Here is another good tip! - Just because it is expensive, does not make it the better buy - Stealth Black hand is my favorite unit in the game and it only costs 400! Also, buy characters and vehicles for your abilities! Don't buy a sniper if you can't snipe and don't even want to snipe!-----Lots of times I see newbs saying "wow, I never knew you could take out a mammy with a nod officer (or something to that effect)" they try for hours and can't do it, and this opportunity doesn't come up often so they buy a nod officer and wait for a mammy to come while not doing anything else. just standing there! letting their team mates die and their base be destroyed! Sorry for rambling on but this REALLY annoys me! [April 08, 2002: Message edited by: huntleader]
