Yeah I know what you mean. I was online earlier today and had a teammate get in my Mammoth, well I said okay as long as you know how to shoot at the hostile tanks. What he does instead is shoot at the infantry which *ed me off, so I just drove straight toward the enemy base and he left the tank. The worst teamwork I have seen is when a player leaves his Mammoth Tank right smack inside the enemy base and it becomes a Nod Mammoth Tank. On some of the servers it seems that have been surrounded by morons or players that do not know how to use teamwork. Even had several players use foul language telling me off. Very fustrating...Teamwork works, just wish I can play on a team where everyone knows how to use teamwork.
