Isn't there a time period when only you can get the tank you paid for? When a guy gets in a tank don't assume the worst. I was at our base, as engineer driving tank, got back to heal, hopped out, healed and a guy hopped in, as I finished heal he hopped out. Very smart move - made sure no enemy could steal (base was pretty secure but hey, you never know). So if a guy hops in, give him a chance before concluding he is stealing.
