Well, get a stealth tank or a flame tank, buy a nuke beacon, jump from the Hand of Nod windows, and land on top of said vehicle. (If at all possible) Plant the nuke beacon on top of it and drive it to their base. As soon as you hear the air raid siren, ram it against a structure. Probably won't work, but funny as hell to think about. I'd rather learn how to get ontop of buildings and place it there. If like practicly no one knows how, it will most likely never get disarmed.
