I want people to give their opinions on this, but do you believe this is true?The best people on games start off with 56k's, develoup mad skill (too keep up with LPB's), then when they become LPB's they are of the best due to the fact they keep the skill that they learned when they're 56k'ers?I believe it 100\%Now remember, I just want your opinions, not a debate please.
