That picture doesn't help much. And change the reticle! Change the reticle to a hunter reticle. Ever since I got my new reticle, my accuracy and greatly improved. The mountains look like you have moved them too much. You don't really need to change every verticy. just so it doesn't look flat. The texture doesn't look too good either. If I knew what the over head layout of it looked like, I could give you advice on it.Edit: Infantry only map!? Why is everyone making infantry only maps!? Vehicles is what puts the conquer in command & conquer! [February 10, 2003, 15:24: Message edited by: dead4ayear2]
